

Law Clerk Position – Minnesota Catholic Conference

The Minnesota Catholic Conference (MCC) has a unique opportunity for law students who would like to connect their faith with legal practice.

MCC, the public policy voice of the Catholic Church in Minnesota, seeks law clerks for the 2013 legislative session (January-May).

Law clerks will assist MCC staff on various public policy and lobbying initiatives involving a broad array of issues. Clerks will provide research support, help write educational materials for the MCC website and the general public, and may have an opportunity to gain some hands-on lobbying experience.

The position is unpaid, but the hours are flexible.

To apply, send your resume, cover letter, unofficial transcript, and three recommendations to hr@mccc.org.

For more information about the Minnesota Catholic Conference, visit its website at <http://www.mccc.org>.